In today's Gospel reading Jesus speaks to the Rich Young Man (Mark 10:17-30)
 Pope St John Paul the Great used this Gospel passage in his Letter to Young People.

You can find the full version here:

It is very readable and profound.

Mass on Sunday

It is good if students can come to the Chaplaincy for Mass – so that we can support each other. But sometimes you might not be able to make it for Mass on Campus. Maybe you are very busy and live in Greenstead or Wivenhoe or the centre of town. Maybe you have a sports fixture or you need extra sleep...

Here's a link to Catholic churches: <http://www.dioceseofbrentwood.net/churches/> You can find the Churches in Colchester. There are Saturday evening Masses in Greenstead and at St James the Less in the centre of town. And there is an evening Mass at St James the Less in – Sundays 6:30pm. Do remember that it's an obligation for Catholics to attend Mass each Sunday and on holy days of obligation!

Late for Mass? It's OK to come along after we've started. Please just come in!

Papyrus is for people who are feeling suicidal: <https://www.papyrus-uk.org/>

As you may know, you can get help from Student Support and other University agencies on the Essex website, from your doctor (or GP) and from the Accident and Emergency department at the hospital. People are always welcome to ring or text me on my mobile at any time (and at night time if it's urgent) - 07843 758961.
